GIRLHOOD TO WOMANHOOD

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

ELLEN M. OLSON

The responsibility for a daughter's future largely rests with the mother.

The right influence and the information which is of vital interest to the daughter imparted at the proper time has not only saved the life but insured the success of many a beautiful girl.

When a girl's thoughts become sluggish, with headache, dizziness or a disposition to sleep, pains in back or lower limbs, eyes dim, desire for solitude; when she is a mystery to herself and friends, her mother should come to her aid, and remember that Lyd's E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compagnd, made from nativa tiful girl. ber that Lydis E. Piakham's Vege-table Compound, made from native roots and herbs, will at this time prepare the system for the coming change, and start this trying period in a young girl's life without pain or irregularities. It has been thus depended upon for two generations.

Hundreds of letters from young girls and their mothers, expressing gratitude for what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done for them, are constantly being received. ceived.

Miss Ellen M. Olson, of 417 N. East St., Kewanee, Ill. writes:—

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:-"I have had the best doctors in our town for my sickness and they all thought that an operation was necessary. I had beadache,

Miss Clara E. Darmstadter, of 453

Breckenridge St., Buffalo, N.Y., writes:

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—
"For about a year, except during the past few months, I suffered with severe pains every month, with backaches and headaches. I had the blues so bad that I was in despair. It is a pleasure to tell you that Lydia E. Pinkhams Vogotable Compound has cured ms. The change in my appearance is wonderful and I desire that this good may come to every sufferer. Any one destring to know further details may write to me and I shall be glad to give them."
